Evie Stacy, Spaulding Youth Center Medical Director, Named 2016 Nurse Practitioner of the Year

Northfield, NH – Spaulding Youth Center is proud to announce Evie Stacy, Spaulding Youth Center Medical Director, was named the 2016 New Hampshire Nurse Practitioner of the Year. Since 2004, Ms. Stacy has played a critical role on our esteemed medical team here on campus.

Ms. Stacy was honored at a special reception held at the Radisson Hotel Manchester following the 23rd Annual Northeast Regional Nurse Practitioner Conference. During this event, Ms. Stacy's dedication to the health and well-being of Spaulding Youth Center students was highlighted along with the many other contributions to her Dartmouth Hitchcock office and the NH Nurse Practitioner Association, including assisting in the organization of this year's conference.

Each year, the New Hampshire Nurse Practitioner Association (NHNPA) names one recipient as the Nurse Practitioner of the Year. Requirements to be considered as a nominee includes qualifying as an Advanced Registered Nurse Practitioner, upholding a full member and in good standing for the NHNPA, making a significant contribution to the role of Nurse Practitioner at state and/or national level. Composed of past award recipients, the selection committee meets to review nominations and vote on the coming year's recipient.
