MetroCast provides turkeys for Spaulding Youth Center's annual Thanksgiving Feast

(Northfield, NH)

Since 2008, MetroCast has been supplying Spaulding Youth Center with turkeys for their annual Thanksgiving feast. MetroCast's Regional Manager, NH/ME Moira Campbell and Regional Marketing Manager Shannon Barnes delivered eight meaty turkeys to Spaulding in preparation for the feast. A traditional dinner with all the trimmings prepared by Food Services Director Shane Milianes and his food services team will be served to approximately 200 students, staff, board members and invited community partners. The meal will be served family style by students at Spaulding.

Campbell, who is a Spaulding Youth Center Foundation Director, commented, "MetroCast is proud to support an organization which is contributing so much to the region by providing exceptional academic and therapeutic programs for students with autism, neurological impairments, and/or behavioral challenges. We take great pleasure and pride in being able to provide turkeys to Spaulding for the Thanksgiving feast, as well as funds to support programs and volunteers who help run Spaulding's Field Day each year."
