Evie Stacy, Spaulding Youth Center Medical Director, Receives 2017 AANP Nurse Practitioner State Award of Excellence

Northfield, NH – Spaulding Youth Center is proud to announce Evie Stacy, Spaulding Youth Center Medical Director, received the 2017 American Association of Nurse Practitioners (AANP) State Award of Excellence. Since 2001, Ms. Stacy has played a critical role on our esteemed medical team here on campus.

Ms. Stacy was recognized for this achievement during the 2017 AANP national conference in Philadelphia. She received her award at their Salute to the States Award Ceremony on June 23rd for her dedication to the health and well-being of Spaulding Youth Center students.

Each year American Association of Nurse Practitioners gives this prestigious award to a dedicated nurse practitioner in each state who demonstrated excellence in their area of practice.

Ms. Stacy's 41-year career has been dedicated to caring for the physical and mental health of New Hampshire's children. "I feel very fortunate to have worked with so many children and families, and to have been an integral part of their healthcare," shared Ms. Stacy. She is an outstanding practitioner who partners with her patients to help them reach their full potential.
