

News > Community

celebration in snow

Spaulding Academy & Family Services in Northfield recently held its annual Winter Carnival, an outdoor experiential learning event. Children made their own sleds and decorated them using the 2021 “Heroes” theme, and each classroom had the opportunity to try the sleds out on campus. The event was a great way for the school community to enjoy outdoor educational play, while promoting positive mental health as the pandemic wears on. Just Flow Events and Marketing

Published: 3/17/2021 8:52:03 AM

Spaulding Academy & Family Services in Northfield recently held its annual Winter Carnival, an outdoor experiential learning event. Children made their own sleds and decorated them using the 2021 “Heroes” theme, and each classroom had the opportunity to try the sleds out on campus. The event was a great way for the school community to enjoy outdoor educational play, while promoting positive mental health as the pandemic wears on.

Source: celebration in snow \(concordmonitor.com\)