

News > Community

Celebrating end of term

Spaulding Academy & Family Services transformed its annual Field Day into a three-day event this June to celebrate the end of the traditional school year. Students enjoyed water balloon games, inflatable structures, egg and spoon and potato sack races, and gaga ball games. Students and staff were also recognized with appreciation awards: Spaulding Academy staff members received staff shirts, and students received individual awards from their teachers and were treated to a pizza lunch. Courtesy

Published: 7/5/2021 10:26:57 PM

Spaulding Academy & Family Services transformed its annual Field Day into a three-day event this June to celebrate the end of the traditional school year. Students enjoyed water balloon games, inflatable structures, egg and spoon and potato sack races, and gaga ball games. Students and staff were also recognized with appreciation awards: Spaulding Academy staff members received staff shirts, and students received individual awards from their teachers and were treated to a pizza lunch.

Source: Celebrating end of term \(concordmonitor.com\)