Spaulding announces Spirit Award winners

Spaulding Academy & Family Services has announced the winners of its monthly Spaulding Spirit awards for the fourth quarter of 2021: Donnelle Combs for October, Kristin Cain for November, and Nichole Brizer for December.

Nominated by their fellow employees, they are recognized for modeling the spirit of the organization and inspiring their peers.

Combs has been employed with Spaulding Academy & Family Services for 18 years since he graduated from Plymouth State University with a degree in psychology and law. He serves as a teaching associate at Spaulding Academy where he teaches math and English.

Cain is a shift leader and residential counselor and has been with the organization for nearly 17 years as part of the residential team.

Brizer is also a shift leader and residential counselor who has been employed at the organization for three years. She previously held various positions in the veterinary and customer service fields.
