

32

THE LATEST

NONPROFITS

Spaulding Academy & Family Services, Northfield, has named Meaghan Emmons of Goffstown as its new chief financial officer. She joins the organization after 19 years with Granite Group Benefits and Alera Group, where her most recent role was as senior vice president of finance. In addition, Garrett Lavalley of Meredith has been promoted to principal and director of special education at the academy. He began his career at Spaulding in 1999, holding various positions over the years, most recently as assistant director of special education.